

MEDIAEVAL & RENAISSANCE MANUSCRIPT COLLECTIONS AT OXFORD COLLEGES

BALLIOL CHRIST CHURCH CORPUS CHRISTI
MAGDALEN MERTON NEW COLLEGE

Overshadowed for too long by the glories of the Bodleian, the libraries of the older college foundations in Oxford are emerging as a rich and little explored source for mediaeval scholars. The illuminated manuscripts certainly deserve to be better known; they include fine miniatures by the Oxford illuminator de Bralles as well as a good range of French and English Psalters, Books of Hours, Bibles and Law texts. Bequests of Greek mss. from Archbishop Wake, Humanist texts, many of them Italian, from William Gray are also outstanding. But given the nature of the mediaeval curriculum, it is not surprising to find that theological and patristic works form by far the largest group of mss. and that many of these were written by contemporary Oxford scholars.

Since many of the colleges preserve large proportions of their original mediaeval holdings and founding bequests, these collections present vital evidence for our understanding of the intellectual life of one of the world's oldest universities. These are the complete mediaeval manuscript collections of these colleges, and each college may be purchased separately.

SECTION I: BIBLICAL TEXTS & STUDIES

The manuscripts in this section reflect the working life of a university. Students were required to lecture on one of the books of the Bible and there are a large number of glossed books of the Bible as well as many small one-volume 'University' Bibles. There are numerous texts of commentaries by the Church Fathers as well as by later theologians. Amongst the 14th and 15th century mss. there are many by contemporary Oxford scholars such as Kilwardby, Scotus and Ockham; the influence of the Mendicant Orders is a notable feature.

LIST OF MANUSCRIPTS INCLUDED IN THIS SECTION

BALLIOL

The majority of the mss. are Old Testament commentaries – Nicholas de Lyra, Gregory the Great, etc. – and many contain good initials and penwork. There are a number of fine Italian mss. from William Gray's library.
