RECORDS OF THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE
RELATING TO
INTERNAL AFFAIRS OF ITALY, 1910-1929

On the 60 rolls of this microfilm publication are reproduced the records from the decimal file of the Department of State, 1910-29, that relate to internal affairs of Italy. The records, consisting of bound volumes and unbound documents, are mostly instructions to and despatches from diplomatic and consular officials; the despatches are often accompanied by enclosures. Also included in these records are notes between the Department of State and foreign diplomatic representatives in the United States, memoranda prepared by officials of the Department, and correspondence with officials of other Government departments and with private firms and persons. The Lists of Documents or "purport sheets" filmed on Rolls 1-3 give brief abstracts of the documents reproduced in this microcopy and serve as a finding aid to the documents themselves. The arrangement of the entries on these lists generally corresponds to the arrangement of the documents in the file.

From 1910 to 1963 the Department of State used a decimal system for its central files, assembling and arranging individual documents according to subject and assigning file numbers. The decimal file consists of nine primary classes numbered 0 through 8, each covering a broad subject area. The records reproduced in this microcopy are in Class 8, Internal Affairs of States. The country number assigned to Italy is 65; thus the documents bear the file number 865 and relate to internal affairs of Italy. A decimal point is used after the first three digits, followed by a number that represents a specific subtopic. This number, in turn, may be followed by a slant mark (/). In such cases numbers after the slant mark were assigned to individual documents as they were accumulated on a specific subject. For example, a decimal file number taken from a document reproduced in this microcopy is 865.638/2. The number 638 signifies that the subtopic is quarries, and the number after the slant mark indicates the number of documents on this subtopic.

The documents under one subject classification are generally in chronological order, coinciding with the document number assigned (which follows the slant mark). There are instances, however, when a document file number was not assigned until a date considerably later than the one on which the document was received.

Cross-reference sheets that refer to related records under other subject classifications in the decimal file have been reproduced as they occur, and appropriate cross-reference notations appear in the Lists of Documents. Other cross-reference notations are to documents in the "numerical file," a system used for the central files of the Department of State for the period 1906-10. The checkmarks that appear by most entries in the left-hand column of the Lists of Documents indicate that the papers are in the file; entries without marks, it is believed, refer to documents that were not among the records when they were received from the Department of State.

Some of the documents that have been checked in the Lists of Documents do not appear in this microcopy. The file contains security-classified documents and communications received from and classified by foreign governments and Federal agencies, in addition to those classified by the Department of State. Documents that have not been declassified are not available as part of this microcopy. The National Archives and Records Service does not have authority to make reproductions of such documents available to searchers.

The largest group of records reproduced in this microcopy concerns political affairs, financial affairs (including loans and proposed loans to several cities and commercial enterprises in Italy), banks and banking, and expositions and exhibitions.

Some of the other subtopics relating to Italian internal affairs are government, history, labor, taxation, agriculture, mines and mining, and merchant vessels. There are also records relating to the internal affairs of Eritrea, Somaliland, and Libya (Libia).

The records reproduced in this microcopy are part of the records in the National Archives designated as Record Group 59, General Records of the Department of State.

In the same record group in the National Archives are several diplomatic series containing additional documents on relations between Italy and the United States. They are copies of instructions from the Department of State to U.S. Ministers to all countries, 1823-33 (Rolls 5 and 9), and to U.S. Ministers to Italy (including Sardinia), 1838-1906 (Rolls 101-105), and to the Two Sicilies, 1838-61 (Roll 170; all on Microcopy 77); notes to foreign ministers and consuls in the United States from the Department, 1810-34 (Rolls 2-5 of Microcopy 38); and notes to the Legations of the Italian States, Greece, and Turkey, 1834-68 (Roll 61), and of Italy, 1868-1906 (Rolls 62-65), in the United States from the Department (all on Microcopy 99); despatches from U.S. Ministers to the Italian States and Italy (including the Two Sicilies, Sardinia, and the Papal States), 1832-1906 (Microcopy 90); and notes from the Legations of the Two Sicilies, 1826-60 (Microcopy 55), of Sardinia, 1838-61 (Microcopy 201), of Italy, 1861-1906 (Microcopy 202), and of the Papal States, 1881-1903 (Roll 3 of T-953). Also related to matters concerning Italy are communications to special agents of the United States from the Department, 1852-86 (Roll 154 of Microcopy 77).

There are also microfilm publications available on despatches from U.S. consular officials at Ancona, 1840-74 (T-359); Brindisi, 1864-76 (T-370); Cagliari, 1802-25 (T-187); Carrara (Apuania), 1852-81 (T-376); Castellammare di Stabia, 1878-1906 (T-543); Catania, 1883-1906 (T-544); Florence (Firenze), 1824-1906 (T-204); Genoa, 1799-1906 (T-64); Leghorn (Livorno), 1793-1906 (T-214); Messina, 1822-1906 (T-399); Milan, 1874-1906 (T-170); Naples, 1796-1906 (T-224); Otranto, 1861-67 (T-542); Palermo, 1803-1906 (T-420); Rome, 1801-1906 (T-231); Spezia (La Spezia), 1856-74 (T-441); Taranto, 1861-76 (T-444); Trieste, 1800-1906 (T-242); Turin, 1877-1906 (T-174); Venice (Venezia), 1830-1906 (Microcopy 153); and Verona, 1880 and 1882, see Venice (Roll T-5 of Microcopy 153). Complementary to the despatches from consuls are instructions to consuls.

The method of arranging the diplomatic and consular series cited above was discontinued in 1906, when the Department of State adopted the practice of filing incoming and outgoing correspondence, memoranda, and other documents by subject in a single numerical series. Information on documents relating to Italy for the 1906-10 period may be found through the use of card indexes and lists of Documents in the National Archives.

Among the records in the same record group, in Class 7 of the Department of State decimal file, 1910-29, are two other series regarding Italian affairs that are closely related to the records reproduced in this microcopy. One concerns political relations between the United States and Italy (Microcopy 529), and the other is political relations between Italy and Other States (Microcopy 530). Other closely related records in the decimal file include the internal affairs of the Papal States (Holy See) (Microcopy 561), political relations between the United States and the Papal States (Holy See) (Microcopy 562), and political relations between the Papal States (Holy See) and Other States (Microcopy 563).

Additional documents are in the remaining classes of the Department of State decimal file as follows:

- Class 0. General. Miscellaneous.
- Class 1. Administration, Government of the United States.
- Class 2. Extradition.
- Class 3. Protection of Interests.
- Class 4. Claims.
- Class 5. International Congresses and Conferences.
Multi-lateral Treaties. League of Nations.
- Class 6. Commerce. Customs Administration. Commercial Relations, Treaties and Conventions.
Commercial and Trade Agreements.

In Record Group 84, Records of the Foreign Service Posts of the Department of State, are records originally kept at U.S.

diplomatic and consular posts. Among these are the records of the U.S. Legation (later Embassy) in Italy, 1839-1939, and of consular posts in that country.

In Record Group 43, Records of United States Participation in International Conferences, Commissions, and Expositions, are records of several conferences in which the United States and Italy participated. There are also records relating to the Exposition of Art and History at Rome, 1911, and the Exposition of Industry and Labor at Turin, 1911.

The records reproduced in this microcopy were prepared for filming by Ernestine S. Cognasso, who wrote these introductory remarks and provided the other editorial material.
